Kinross Arts Centre

Victorian Seniors' Festival Collaboration with Duldig Studio

As part of the Victorian Senior's Festival on October 24th, Kinross partnered with Duldig Studio for a gallery exploration day, touring the former home and studio of sculptor Karl Duldig and artist Slawa Horowitz-Duldig. Guests continued to Kinross Arts Centre, where they viewed the "Green Dreams" student exhibition, learned about Kinross House history, enjoyed studio visits with resident artists, and lunch at Kinross Café. Heartfelt thanks to our volunteers and studio artists for their contributions to this collaborative experience.

Centenary Concert of Revered David Hodges AM

On October 27th, David Ross-Smith held a celebration concert honouring the centenary year of Revered David Hodges AM. Performers included the TUC Choir, students of David Ross-Smith, and the outstanding operative soprano Kate Amos, who delivered a wonderful selection including arias from Puccini and Delibes. Essential funds were raised for Kinross Arts Centre. Special thanks to David, the performers, volunteers and catering sponsors Heather Martin and Margaret Lloyd Banks, for making the event memorable.
